

California Department of State Hospitals – Napa

Caring today for a safe and healthy tomorrow

The California Department of State Hospitals (DSH) – Napa opened on November 15, 1875. The state hospital's current treatment philosophies, rooted in the moral treatment concept of the late 1800s, have reflected the numerous prevailing practices over the decades. DSH – Napa is moving toward the next century with a bio-psychosocial rehabilitation philosophy for the treatment of patients. The state hospital's specialized programs and treatment services meet national standards set by the Joint Commission (JC). It is certified under the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) and licensed by the Department of Health Services for three levels of care including Acute Psychiatric, Skilled Nursing Facility, and Intermediate Care Facility. DSH – Napa is classified as a low to moderate security facility and has a bed capacity to treat up to 1,362 patients on an attractive campus with its treatment units located on 138 acres. DSH – Napa creates an atmosphere where patients, state hospital staff, volunteers, family members, and community mental health staff work together to offer new ideas and make choices and decisions regarding the quality and type of services provided.

Located in the scenic Napa Valley

The Napa Valley is convenient to San Francisco and Marin County attractions, as well as the high Sierras. The scenic Mendocino coast, with its quaint inns and unique galleries, is less than a three-hour drive to the west. Boating on San Francisco Bay and around the villages of Tiburon, Belvedere, and Sausalito is a popular year-round sport. The vintner's art has made its California home in the Napa Valley, attracting many fine restaurants to the area.

Although located adjacent to metropolitan areas, the Napa Valley offers a quiet, sweeping vista of vineyards and haze-capped hills. The pace is slow, offering peace and tranquility in a moderate climate. Fine schools and a sense of community round out this Northern California location.
