

Mentally Disordered Offender Independent Evaluator Panel

Pursuant to Penal Code Section 2978(b), the Department of State Hospitals (DSH) and California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) annually locate and contact Independent professionals who are eligible and willing to serve as Independent Evaluators for the Board of Parole Hearings (BPH).

The following will briefly outline the background of the Mentally Disordered Offender (MDO) program pursuant to Penal Code Section 2960-2981, and explain the role of evaluators and the application process:

BACKGROUND

Penal Code Section 2960 (PC 2960) et. seq. provides for a system of evaluation and subsequent mental health treatment a condition of parole for certain CDCR inmates.

ROLE OF INDEPENDENT EVALUATORS

Independent Evaluators are appointed and used by BPH under the following circumstances:

1. When there is nonconcurrency between CDCR and DSH on whether a prisoner met MDO criteria for involuntary psychiatric treatment as a condition of parole, the independent evaluator will then conduct a subsequent evaluation pursuant to PC 2962(d)(2). Evaluations are conducted at CDCR institutions;
2. As requested by the parolee/patient or his/her attorney for certification (PC 2966(a)), placement (PC 2964(b)), or annual review (PC 2966(c)) hearings conducted by BPH . Evaluations are conducted at state hospitals or in a Forensic Conditional Release Program throughout the State.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for appointment by BPH, Independent Evaluators must meet the following criteria:

Clinicians must satisfy the following MQs annually to be appointed:

1. Referral by DSH and CDCR pursuant to Penal Code section 2978;
2. Submit a current resume/curriculum vitae;
3. Possess five years full time work experience in the diagnosis and treatment of mental disorders pursuant to Penal Code section 2978;
4. Possess and maintain a current, valid license in good standing with the California Board of Psychology;
5. Not currently an MDO contractor with the Department of State Hospitals (DSH);

6. Provide annual documentation of symptom free tuberculin skin testing and evaluation;
7. Meet the necessary requirements to be eligible for entrance to each of the panel's facilities, and follow all institution and hospital dress code requirements, including seasonal requirements for flu shots or wearing a breathing mask;
8. Attend the MDO orientation in full (including at least one hour regarding the Americans with Disabilities Act);
9. Annually sign and submit the MDO Evaluator Participation Form;
10. Open and maintain an account in the Board's Disability & Effective Communication System (DECS) database. The DECS database is a comprehensive repository of information related to each offender's disabilities. Clinicians are to provide at own cost all hardware/software that will enable access to this database information; and
11. Open and maintain a "WatchDox/Workspaces" account by registering an email address for access to electronic email files.

Exclusion:

1. Pursuant to state law, clinicians shall not be California state government employees;
2. Penal Code section 2978(a) reads "[a]ny independent professionals appointed by the Board of Parole Hearings for purposes of this article shall not be state government employees." Therefore, no CDCR or DSH employees (whether full time, part time, or contract) may be used by the Board for independent MDO evaluations.

APPOINTMENT AND COMPENSATION

Independent Evaluators are appointed and compensated by BPH. The rate paid for the current fiscal year is $750.00 per evaluation and is inclusive of: 1) a review of all available CDCR files and the prisoner/parolee's medical (psychiatric) records, 2) an examination of the prisoner/parolee, 3) a written evaluation report.
