California Code of Regulations
Title 9. Rehabilitative and Developmental Services
Division 1. Department of Mental Health
Chapter 16. State Hospital Operations

Adopt new article 7.5 and sections 4750, 4751 and 4752 to title 9, California Code of Regulations to read as follows.

NOTE: The entire text is new regulatory language to be added to the California Code of Regulations.

Article 7.5 Alienist Guidelines

§ 4750. Purpose and Scope.

These regulations are established pursuant to Penal Code section 1369, subdivision (h), to create standards for education and training that the courts shall consider in the appointment of psychiatrists or licensed psychologists who are to provide forensic evaluations in cases where a question has been raised, under Penal Code sections 1370, 1370.01, or 1370.1, as to a defendant's competency to stand trial. Upon consideration of these standards, if the court is unable to locate a reasonably available expert who meets the standards or who has equivalent experience and skills, the court has discretion to appoint an expert who does not meet these standards.

§ 4751. Definitions.

- (a) "Evaluator" means a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist appointed by a court to provide Forensic Evaluations as defined in this section.

- (b) “Forensic Evaluation” means the assessment of a defendant, ordered by a court, in which the Evaluator opines on a specific psycho-legal referral question related to Penal Code section 1369 et seq., and competency to stand trial.
- (c) “Incompetent to stand trial” means that as a result of mental disorder or a developmental disability the defendant does not have the ability to understand the nature of the criminal proceedings against him or her or to assist counsel in the conduct of a defense in a rational manner.
- (d) “Licensed psychologist” means a person licensed as a psychologist by the California Board of Psychology.
- (e) “Psychiatrist” means an allopathic physician licensed by the Medical Board of California or an osteopathic physician licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California and who has completed a Board-approved residency-training program in psychiatry.
- (f) “Psycho-legal” means specific applications of psychiatry or psychology to the applicable legal requirements.

§ 4752. Forensic Evaluator Training Requirements.

- (a) The court shall appoint a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist to evaluate whether a criminal defendant is incompetent to stand trial. This evaluation shall include: the nature of a defendant’s mental disorder; a defendant’s ability or inability to understand the nature of the criminal proceedings or to assist counsel in a rational manner in the conduct of a defense; and, if within the scope of his or her license, whether treatment with antipsychotic medication is medically appropriate and likely to restore the defendant to mental competence. In considering an appointment, the court shall appoint an expert who meets the provisions in subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section and who meets the provision in subsection (4) of this section, or an expert with equivalent experience and skills.

(1) If a psychiatrist, the psychiatrist shall have a State of California license in a renewed and current status, without any restrictions prohibiting practice, and one of the following:

- (A) board certification by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology with added or special qualifications in forensic psychiatry;
- (B) eligibility for board certification by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology with added or special qualifications in forensic psychiatry; or
- (C) completion of a fellowship in forensic psychiatry.

(2) If a psychologist, the psychologist shall have a State of California psychology license in renewed and current status and one of the following:

- (A) board certification in forensic psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology;
- (B) eligibility for board certification in forensic psychology by the American Board of Professional Psychology; or

(C) completion of a post-doctoral training in forensic psychology.

(3) If a psychiatrist or psychologist who does not meet the provision in either subsection (1) or (2) above, the expert shall have training or experience consisting of:

(A) At least 24 hours of specialized forensic training relating to incompetency evaluations.

(B) Experience in drafting forensic reports submitted to a court. If a peer review panel composed of members who are experienced in the criminal justice system and familiar with the issues of competency and criminal responsibility are available, the court may require a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist to provide proof, prior to appointment, that three of a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist's redacted reports have been reviewed by such a panel.

(C) If evaluating for developmental disabilities, experience in the treatment and assessment of individuals with developmental disabilities.

(4) The expert shall have completed, within the 24 months preceding the appointment, eight hours of continuing education courses, as required by the respective licensing board, in forensic evaluation.

(b) Other experts.

(1) If, within a reasonable period of time, the court is unable to locate a reasonably available psychiatrist or licensed psychologist who meets the guidelines or who has equivalent experience and skills, the court shall have the discretion to appoint an expert who does not meet these guidelines.

(2) In cases wherein the court may benefit from an evaluation by an expert with a specialized area of expertise to inform on the opinion of competency, the court may appoint a specialized expert who does not meet these guidelines.
